Determination of playing time for players in the Caribe Little League.

Attention:

The following is a disclaimer by Caribe Little League regarding the determination of player placement, playing time and league fees.

Playing Time

Caribe Little League and/or a Caribe Little League official determine the locations and times for games as well as the playing time for the players. The game schedule will be updated on the Caribe Little League website (www.caribelittleleague.com). Individual player playing times are determined by League officials and are not published or guaranteed.

League Group Placement

Caribe Little League and/or a Caribe Little League official determine the League Group where players will be assigned. This determination is made is based on several criteria one of which is the player abilities as determined by a League official.

League Fees

Caribe Little League policy states that upon the withdrawal of any player, 50% of the league fees are Non-Refundable.
